

Wine Spectator

87

MICHELE SATTA

Toscana White Costa di Giulia 2009

Pine and apple flavors get support from peach and floral accents in this pungent white. Balanced, if on the soft side, with a grapefruit peel finish. Vermentino and Sauvignon. Drink now. 200 cases imported. (Web Only)

WineSpectator.com

Wine Spectator

94

MICHELE SATTA

Toscana Cavaliere 2004

A forthcoming nose of sweet berry, licorice, tobacco and spices marks this alluring red, which is harmonious and beautiful now, but still firmly structured. The lingering finish evokes dried cherry and mineral elements that go on and on. Sangiovese. Drink now through 2022. 80 cases imported. (Jul 31, 2011)

WineSpectator.com